Several Liability Clause

The liability of an insurer under this contract is several and not joint with other insurers party to this contract. An insurer is liable only for the proportion of liability it has underwritten. An insurer is not jointly liable for the proportion of liability underwritten by any other insurer. Nor is an insurer otherwise responsible for any liability of any other insurer that underwrites this contract. The proportion of liability under this contract underwritten by an insurer (or, in the case of a Lloyd's syndicate, the total of the proportions underwritten by all the members of the syndicate taken together) is shown in this contract. In the case of a Lloyd's syndicate, each member of the syndicate (rather than the syndicate itself) is an insurer. Each member has underwritten a proportion of the total shown for the syndicate (that total itself being the total of the proportions underwritten by all the members of the syndicate taken together). The liability of each member of the syndicate is several and not joint with other members. A member is liable only for that member's proportion. A member is not jointly liable for any other member's proportion. Nor is any member otherwise responsible for any liability of any other insurer that underwrites this contract. The business address of each member is Lloyd's, One Lime Street, London EC3M 7HA. The identity of each member of a Lloyd's syndicate and their respective proportion can be obtained by writing to Market Services, Lloyd's, at the above address. Although reference is made at various points in this clause to "this contract" in the singular, where the circumstances so require this must be read as a reference to contracts in the plural.

Customer service information

This Introduction, the Customer service information, the General definitions, General conditions, General exclusions, Sections, Section extensions, the schedule and any endorsements all form part of this insurance policy.

IMPORTANT REMINDER

It is important that:

- You check that the information you have given us is accurate and up to date – See the Customer service information section for more details.
- You read the policy and understand its contents, if you do not understand any aspect please contact your insurance advisor.
- You comply with your duties under each section and under the insurance as a whole.
- You check that the sections you have requested are included in the schedule.

This policy must be kept in a safe place. You will need to refer to it if you have to make a claim.

This section contains important information about how we will deal with claims under this policy and the information you have given us.

Information you have given us

In deciding to accept this policy and in setting the terms and premium, we have relied on the information you, or your appointed agent acting on your behalf, have given us. You must take care when answering any questions, we ask by ensuring that all information provided is accurate and complete.

If we establish that you deliberately or recklessly provided us with false or misleading information, we will treat your policy as if it never existed and decline all claims. We are entitled to keep any premium already paid by you in this situation.

If we establish that you provided us with false, incomplete, or misleading information, but this was neither deliberate nor reckless, it can adversely affect your policy and any claim.

For example:

- Where we could have accepted the risk and offered you an insurance policy, but we would have charged a higher premium, we will only pay a percentage of any claim that you make under the policy. We would do this by considering the premium we charged as a percentage of the higher premium we would have charged and then paying you the equivalent percentage of any claim.

So, as an example: if the premium we actually charged was £250 (two hundred and fifty pounds) and the higher premium we would have charged was £1,000 (one thousand pounds), then the premium we actually charged represents twenty five percent of the higher premium we would have charged, and we will only pay 25% (twenty five percent) of any claim.
- We will treat this policy as if it had never existed and refuse to pay all claims and return the premium. We will only do this if the false, incomplete, or misleading information means that we provided you with insurance cover when we would not otherwise have offered it at all had the risk been fairly presented.
- If we would have written the risk on different terms had it been fairly presented, we will amend the policy to include these terms. We will apply these amended terms as if they were already in place before a claim is made.
- We can cancel your policy in accordance with its cancellation provisions.

We will write to you if we:

- intend to treat your policy as if it never existed; or
- amend the terms of your policy; or
- reduce your claim in accordance with the above.

If you become aware that information you have given us is inaccurate or incomplete, you must inform us without delay.

If this insurance is cancelled then, provided you have not made a claim, you will be entitled to a refund of any premium paid, subject to a deduction for any time for which you have been covered. This will be calculated on a proportional basis. For example, if you have been covered for six (6) months, the deduction for the time you have been covered will be half the annual premium, subject to a deduction for any commission paid to your insurance broker.
